Detailed discussions were held based on each paragraph-wise point by point as printed on Pages 5 to 10 of the AGM booklet circulated to all members.

The Secretary explained the important points in the report and sought approval of the same. Finally, the minutes of the meeting were proposed for acceptance by Prof. V. Veerabhadraiah and seconded by Sri.M.Shankarappa for confirmation and approval. The General Body then unanimously approved the proceedings as printed.

Regarding action taken on the suggestions given (i.e., Sl. No. 1 to 6), the Secretary stated that the details were given duly printed on Pages 11 & 12 and requested the approval.

Regarding the procurement of sites for the different Regional Chapters, Sri K.G. Manjappa suggested that C.A. site allotments are not that safe for the future and it is better to be very cautious and go for direct purchase.

To a question, the Secretary replied that process to obtain 80G of Income Tax is under progress and Managing Committee is at it.

A few members suggested putting the Newsletter on the website also. Sri Narayana Reddy from Chitradurga and Sri V.K. Kamatar suggested trying to procure sites in APMC yards, RMC yards, etc., and examining the release of funds invested in TD/FD, etc., and if possible, to try for allotment of funds from Government sources also.

Regarding the court case pending for recovery of rent/eviction/cheque bounce case, the Secretary stated that the recovery or otherwise, the maintenance and service facilities expenses are in full swing with consultation of the Advocates and Police Department at all levels and explained in detail. The President also explained the action taken, progress, and sincere efforts made so far.

Ultimately, the action taken as recorded and printed on pages 11-12, Sl.No. 1 to 6, was proposed for acceptance by Sri.B.N.Aswathanarayana and seconded by Sri.N.C.Seetharam for approval. The General Body then unanimously approved the action taken.

(5) Presentation and adoption of the Annual Report of activities for the period ending March 2025:

The Secretary Sri Yogesh G.H. presented and explained the highlights in brief as per the report of activities for the year 2024-25, including those of some Regional Chapters as printed in the booklet on pages 13 to 26.

The members appreciated the good work done by Regional Chapter Chitradurga, Belagavi, Mysore and Raichur. They suggested that a few Regional Chapters which have not reported may be requested to show progress in future.

After the above discussion, Prof. V. Veerabhadraiah proposed and Sri.B. Umesh seconded for approval, and then the General Body unanimously approved and adopted the report.

(6) To present and adopt the audited Statement of Accounts, Annual Balance Sheet, and Income and Expenditure account as on 31st March, 2025:

Sri Ramegowda G. presented, read out, and explained the facts and figures of the highlights of the audit report as printed in the booklet from pages 27 to 38.

He also explained certain items of expenditure and sought approval of the statements, and in the coming year, still more reforms in finance shall be implemented.

To a question by Sri B. Shivaraju, the Treasurer gave suitable and satisfactory replies.

The members present were satisfied with the replies and Sri.B.Umesha proposed and Sri.Govindaiah seconded for approval.

The General Body then unanimously considered and approved.

Ratification of Expenditure incurred by the Managing Committee during 2024-25 exceeding the powers of the Managing Committee:

The Treasurer read out in brief as furnished on page 39 and requested ratification by the General Body.

The Treasurer stated that the proposals to enhance the power of M.C. are also already in progress separately.

The General Body unanimously accorded approval for the same and ratified the expenditure.

(7) To approve the proposed Budget for the year 2026-27:

Sri.Ramegowda G., treasurer presented the proposed budget as per bye-law as furnished on pages 40 & 41 and sought approval after explaining the important figures.

Sri.K.G.Manjappa and Sri.B.N.Aswathanarayana suggested using certain better words in the statement as stated by them. Sri.B.N. Aswathanarayana, a very senior member and former Treasurer, requested making very sincere efforts as told by him to get the refund of pending Income Tax amount.
